"The Cartel of Hell"

Diarmuid Jeffreys:

About the close relationship between the Nazi regime and the (German) business community. Jeffreys focuses his attention on IG Farben. IG Farben was a cartel that included all major German chemical companies united (from BASF to Agfa to Bayer). The cartel was established to increase profits and meet emerging foreign competition to leave behind.The cartel had a factory built near Auschwitz "IG-Auschwitz" and then have the prisoners work as slaves.
